THE SMOKE-FREE PUBLIC HOUSING PROJECT

September 13, 2019

Upcoming Connect Call: An Interview with a PHA Director

Join us for our next Connect Call on September 19 at 12:30ET for an interview with Anna Judge, Director of Property Management for the Dakota County Community Development Agency (CDA). Anna will share her perspective on implementing a smoke-free policy for the CDA's nearly 3,000 units. We'll discuss what's working and what isn't working for compliance and enforcement and share some lessons learned and success stories.

Hear more from Anna about the CDA's transition to smoke free in this video:

What is a Connect Call? A Connect Call is a monthly live discussion and Q&A on HUD's smoke-free public housing rule hosted by Clean Air for All. Get answers to your questions about the rule, resident engagement, cessation resources, compliance, and enforcement. The primary audience alternates each month between PHA staff and resident service providers and resident leaders.
